FOUNDATION OVERVIEW

The Fire That Changed Our Lives

On January 19, 2000, tragedy struck at Seton Hall University. A fatal dormitory fire took the lives of three students Aaron Karol, Frank Caltabilota, John Giunta, as well as, injured 60 students and firefighters. It is one of the deadliest college fires in U.S. history.

About The Aspiring Kindness Foundation

In connection with the 10 year anniversary of the Seton Hall University tragedy, a group of Aaron Karol's childhood friends founded The Aspiring Kindness Foundation. The charity was created to always remember Aaron while raising funds to support emergency first responders, hospital burn units, and the Aaron Karol Memorial Scholarship.

Supporting The Community

In 2010, the foundation's initial priority focused on supporting the emergency service providers that assisted Seton Hall University during the tragedy. For several years, the foundation's fund raising initiatives provided support for the South Orange community, as it worked to move past the tragedy. As a result of our efforts, we witnessed an incredible transformation and noticeable impact to the community.

Our foundation has evolved to help numerous other organizations in the tristate area. As time passes, The Aspiring Kindness Foundation continues to expand its reach and make a meaningful impact.

The Golf Outing Benefactor

The Aspiring Kindness Foundation will donate the proceeds from this golf outing to Seton Hall University for fire prevention programs.
